

TECHNOLOGY EDUCATION

What Do You Really Know About Safety?

Take this quick true/false quiz to see just how much you really know about safety!
Please circle the answer you think is correct.

1. T F Sawdust is just as slippery as a spilled liquid, oil, or grease.
2. T F You don't need to wear your safety glasses in the shop if you're not doing anything.
3. T F Machines can be used without the safety guards in place.
4. T F You don't need to report a slight injury to your instructor.
5. T F A metal edge can be just as sharp as the tool that cut it.
6. T F All small work should be secured with a clamp or vise.
7. T F You can operate a machine without the instructor's permission as long as you know how to use it.
8. T F Over 1/3 of workers injured on-the-job are new employees.
9. T F If you can't find a chisel or pry bar, you can just use a screwdriver instead.
10. T F It's O.K. to work with power tools and machines when you're tired.

1. True 2. False, Always wear your safety glasses, even if you're not doing anything, someone else is. 3. False, machines should never be used without the safety guards in place. 4. False, report all injuries - no matter how slight to your instructor immediately. 5. True 6. True 7. False, never operate a machine without receiving the instructor's permission first. 8. True 9. False, don't use a screwdriver as a chisel or pry bar, it could bend or break and injure you. 10. False, You should not work with power tools or machines when you're tired.

ANSWERS: Please cover before copying for students